Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file explicitly depicts two children involved in sexual activity. It is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. It presents children as sexually active and aware and as appropriate subjects for adult sexual desire and fantasy. The image has clearly been orchestrated, most likely by an unseen adult. The image can only be for the purpose of sexually arousing those with a prurient interest in children. As an image file it can be shared widely among like-minded individuals. The image may also be used for the purpose of grooming children for sexual exploitation. The Classification Office has considered the effects of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 on the application of the classification criteria. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression, but this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications that promote and support the exploitation of children for sexual purposes be deemed objectionable.
